Date: 25/01/78 By: 000

1. The CIA Intelligence School graduated its third class on Friday, 23 May. Twenty-one of the twenty-three graduates will enter on duty with various Offices of the Agency. The other two will enter into military service for basic, OCS and other appropriate training prior to assignment to CIA offices. The Director of Central Intelligence delivered the graduation address.

2. Arrangements are nearing completion for a Summer Area Program devoted to the Soviet, Far East and Southeast Asia areas. The program will be conducted in CIA, with major reliance on lecture and informal discussion; will draw on appropriately cleared authorities in the indicated areas; and will, from present indications, have the full participation of some 135 CIA personnel of twelve offices.
